LOCATION:

Located approximately 32 miles northeast of Edinburgh and 25 miles south of Dundee, Glenrothes is the administrative centre and one of the principal industrial/commercial locations within Fife. The town has a resident population of c.40,000 people and benefits from good communication links, lying adjacent to the A92, the principal arterial route through Fife linking Dundee with Dunfermline and the M90, thereafter providing convenient access to the Forth Road Bridge and wider Scottish motorway network. In addition, East Coast Main Line rail services, connecting Aberdeen, Edinburgh and London, are accessible at nearby Markinch and Edinburgh International Airport is approximately a 25 minute drive away.

Eastfield Industrial Estate is situated on the western edge of the town, adjacent to the Bankhead roundabout, the principal vehicular access to Glenrothes from the west and providing direct access to the A92. The Estate provides accommodation for a range of commercial occupiers and in recent years has adapted to incorporated retail and leisure uses, including a Travelodge hotel, Marks & Spencer outlet and Chinese restaurant, in addition to the traditional industrial/manufacturing occupiers.

DESCRIPTION:

The property comprises a detached industrial unit of steel framed construction, brick infill with rough cast finish under a pitched tiled roof. Formed in two sections, the front area of the unit provides office accommodation together with storage area while the rear section offers warehouse/manufacturing space. The property is currently linked to an adjacent unit by way of a link corridor suitable for forklift access however this can be removed to create a standalone unit. Loading canopy facilities are provided to the west elevation with partially secured yard area to the east. In addition, a detached workshop unit incorporating mezzanine is included within the site.

Internally, the main unit has concrete flooring throughout and lighting in by way of strip florescent. Cellular office accommodation is incorporated to the front of the unit and includes gas radiator heating system. Eaves height in the warehouse areas is approximately 4m.
